

First Baptist Regina Weekly News

For the Week of May 9th, 2021

Easter is a celebration of new life and rebirth. Therefore, it seems fitting that the Easter weeks also include Mother's Day. We remember with gratitude our mother's gift to us of life, care, and sustenance, and we pray for peace and joy in the midst of their ongoing concern and labour.

By sin or tragedy, some end up living without a mother's nurturing. By God's grace, these individuals sometimes find healing and still thrive. However, we don't conclude from their success that mothers are inconsequential.

It is an ancient teaching that the church is the mother of every believer. How vital is the church to the well-being of a believer? Some have even been harmed in a church. We hear that some claim to thrive as believers, seemingly apart from the church. Should we conclude from these individuals that the church has no role?

In Calvin's words, apart from the church, "there is no other means of entering into life unless she conceive us in the womb and give us birth, unless she nourish us at her breasts, and, in short, keep us under her charge and government."

I am grateful for this particular church congregation. Through the people of this church, God provides care, nurtures growth, births new Christians, and sustains life. Let us continue to prayerfully work to be a means of grace in each other's lives.

With my love and prayers,

Pastor Joel

New Learning for Life Series

On May 16th, Pastor Richard will begin a new series: “Christ’s Letters to the Church.” This 7-week course will look at the letters of Christ to the seven churches in the book of Revelation.

In Revelation chapters 2 and 3, we find a letter, from Christ, to each of seven different churches. These letters contain, generally speaking, both words of commendation and condemnation. They lead us to ask: What is Christ looking for in his Church? What are considered strengths in a local church? What are considered weaknesses? We will work through one letter a week, asking, as well, what elements of each letter contain significance as we reflect upon our own church (of which we are each individually a part). For more information, see our website or contact Pastor Richard.

Our Condolences

We extend our condolences and prayers to the family and friends of Susan Senger (Pastor Chris’ mother), who passed away in Regina on Friday, April 30th, 2021.

We were also saddened to hear of the passing of Charles Towle on Tuesday, April 27th, 2021, in Calgary, AB. Charles’ wife, Carol Joy (CJ), is the daughter of Ken and Joan Thompson. We extend our condolences and prayers to Charles’ family and friends.

Do you have some time you could donate to the church?

As you know, the need for maintenance does not go away just because our use of the church has been limited due to the pandemic. There are a number of jobs, both inside and outside, that need to be done. As you can see in the photo, this fence is in serious need of a paint job! If you are able to make a contribution to the church in this way, please contact Rob SL or Pastor Joel, or call the church at (306) 359-1450.

Lebanon Fundraiser 2021 Giving Update – WOW!

Our fundraiser on April 18th was a moving experience with stories from the Botros family in Beirut, about the difficult current conditions in Lebanon and what the Lebanese Society for Educational and Social Development are doing to help.

As of Sunday, May 2nd, donations toward our Lebanon partnership are at $17,395!! This will be matched with $9,000 from our Missions budget, adding up to a total of $26,395. We praise God for this wonderful response! Also, our heartfelt thanks go to all who have contributed. For more information on what we learned at the luncheon and where your gift goes, see our website.

“Aren't you happy, Mom?
Spring is finally here!”

I was wondering why music was coming from my printer. Apparently the paper was jamming.

“Son, you’re just not cut out to be a mime.”

“Is it something I said?”

“Yes.”

Interesting trivia of the day: In Sweden, all government-owned ships are required to have a UPC code printed on the hull. When the ships are returned to port, it helps them Scandinavian.

Do you want to hear a construction joke?”

“Yes please.”

“Sorry, I’m still working on it.”
