For the Week of November 14th, 2021

Remembrance Day

Our family heads to the cenotaph in Victoria Park every November 11 and we pray for peace: that the sacrifices made would not be in vain. We remember once again the suffering and sacrifice brought on by nations declaring a state of total war.

The author of Hebrews knew his church was suffering. Like many of the New Testament authors, Hebrews exhorted believers to trust it would not be in vain. Suffering, when influenced by grace, leads to growth and maturity – we can learn from suffering. I imagine some of you remarking (deservedly), “At this rate, I must have earned at least a few PhD’s.” I don’t know that heaven grants degrees but we are preparing ourselves for eternity. God is getting us ready, as Hebrews puts it, every day that is a “today.”

May Jesus meet you in the midst of your challenges.

With love,

Pastor Joel

Communion Preparation Ministry

A team of is being formed for the new year to take turns preparing the communion elements. Brenda Ziolkowski has kindly offered to provide a demonstration of how it's done on Saturday, December 4th at 1:00 pm. She has also prepared a handy "To-Do List" for new volunteers to follow, which is super helpful! If you would like to serve our church family in this way once or twice in 2022, or just check out the list or the demonstration, please contact Marilyn Phillips at 306-515-1113 or by email.

A preacher's new car broke down just after his Sunday service. Monday morning he managed to drive the vehicle to the town's one garage for repairs. "I hope you'll go easy on the cost," he told the mechanic. "After all, I'm just a poor preacher."

"I know," came the reply. "I heard you preach yesterday."

My wife asked me to put ketchup on the shopping list. Now I can't read a single word!

I was sitting drinking coffee in my slippers this morning, when I thought to myself...I really need to wash some cups.

Thanks in Prayer: Psalm 100 (NIV) – A psalm for giving grateful praise.

1 Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.

2 Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.

3 Know that the LORD is God.

It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.

5 For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations.

I have a confession to make. There have been a few times in my life where my prayers to God were all about asking. Asking for money, asking for forgiveness, and asking for stupid things I didn't even really need, but still wanted enough to cry to God about anyway. I began to think about when I prayed, and was embarrassed to realize that it was mostly in hard times.

I made it a point that I was going to start beginning my nightly prayers with thank you. I wasn't sure how many things I'd have to say before I began to pray as I had before, but it felt important to try. Funny thing was, once I began listing all the things I was thankful for, I couldn't stop. More and more blessings, both asked and not asked, began to fill my head and come out my lips. Tears of thankfulness and love filled my eyes as the Lord brought all the things he had done, and is currently doing, with my life and my family's lives, to my attention. I remember not feeling sad or guilty but feeling so very thankful and loved. The Lord's Peace just filled my heart, and all the pointless junk I was praying about before, no longer felt important and I brushed them aside.

I think the problem in today's busy world is that we get far too busy and caught up with the unimportant things around us, and it pulls our attention away from God and all the work and blessings he is doing in our lives, and the lives of others around us. It's because of this that I feel we all need to just slow down. Instead of crying about not getting the raise you wanted at work, be grateful for the job you have. See the things God has given you in life, and say thank you. God will give you what you need, so don't cry to him about not getting what you want. I am not saying stop talking to God about things you need or asking for help, that's fine. I'm just saying instead of jumping right to "I need, I need" in prayer, we really need to say thank you first. We need to do this to show we are grateful for what we have, and not want what our friends and people around us have. Sound familiar? It should, since it's in God's commandments: Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or anything that is thy neighbour's. (See Exodus 20:17 KJV)

I just would like to encourage you to start prayer with thankfulness and praises to God. Not only when we are happy, we also need to thank God when we are sad, we need to thank God when we are scared. We need to be thankful to God at all times, before we go before him with our needs. God loves us very much, and we need to keep him first in our prayers and in our lives. It strengthens our faith and relationship with God, and He will bless us in our lives. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 (NIV) says: "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

As a wheat farmer, I keep getting strange headaches. My doctor says it's my grains.

A sweater I bought was picking up static electricity, so I returned it to the store. They gave me another one, free of charge.
