

First Baptist Regina Weekly News

For the Week of May 8, 2022

Easter is a celebration of new life and rebirth. During Easter we also touch Mother's Day and remember with gratitude her gift to us of life, care, and sustenance.

By sin or tragedy, some live without a mother's nurture. And yet, by God's grace, they can find healing and end up thriving in life. However, we don't conclude from the success of these individuals that mothers are unnecessary.

How vital is the church? It is an ancient teaching that she is our mother. We may find some who thrive as believers seemingly apart from the church, but this is not the norm.

In Calvin's words, "There is no other means of entering into life unless she conceive us in the womb and give us birth, unless she nourish us at her breasts, and, in short, keep us under her charge and government."

90th Anniversary, 1981*

First Baptist Church Congregation, 2015

I am grateful for this congregation, for the care it provides, for the growth it nurtures, for the new Christians it births, and for the life it sustains. Let us continue to prayerfully work to be a means of grace in each other's lives.

With love,

Pastor Joel

Our Condolences

Our condolences and prayers go out to family and friends of Carol Oxelgren who passed away on May 4, 2022. Carol lived a good life, full of loving service and care for others. She was a woman of faith, a lifelong member of First Baptist Regina, and a graduate of the Baptist Leadership Training School. She was strong and always managed to face things with a laugh. She was perceptive and sharp and enjoyed every moment with family and friends. She goes now to her eternal rest in the care of her Good Shepherd.

A funeral will be held on Friday, May 13th, at 1 pm, at First Baptist Church Regina, with a reception to follow. The service will be in person and on Zoom. Join Carol Oxelgren service.

First Baptist Church Weekend Retreat – September 16-18

Mark your calendars now for our 2022 Fall Retreat at Katepwa Lake Camp. This is a church-wide retreat for all ages. The weekend will include sessions for teaching, reflection, and worship. As well there will be free time and opportunity for deepening our friendships, and finding some rest and renewal. Everyone is welcome!

Cost: $50/person (suggested), no cost for young children

To celebrate their golden wedding anniversary, a woman gave her parents tickets to a lavish performance of classical ballet. It was the first time they had been to the opera. The next day, the daughter asked them for their impressions.

“Oh! It was wonderful,” her father replied. “They were so graceful and kind. When they saw your mother asleep in her seat, they danced on tip-toe so as not to wake her up.”

The irate driver waved his speeding ticket in the air at the police officer who’d just written him up.

“What am I supposed to do with this?” the man yelled.

“Hold onto it,” the cop replied. “When you’ve collected four, you get a bicycle.”

Music Ministry Update

We are sorry to report that Trésor Otshudi will not be coming this weekend as planned, and has withdrawn his application for the time being. Our Board Chair, Ron Phillips, and I will be available for questions following the morning service (May 8th). The search committee (Laureen Snook, Brenda Ziolkowski, Joel Russell-MacLean, and Amy Warren) is disappointed, but trusting that God will provide.

I know that this news alone could be a source of discouragement. We had hoped to have a new staff member in place after a one year interim period following John's retirement, and this now seems unlikely. As well, with less staff, many of us may have either received less care from the church or have been called upon to help out with greater frequency. COVID has increased the needs in ministry while also reducing our capacity to respond easily. Richard's understandable but unexpected departure after John's retirement has presented a further challenge.

However, God has provided for us through two years of global, epochal change. As COVID moves from pandemic to endemic (that is, a part of life), we have been increasing our capacity on Sundays. More people are coming in person on Sundays. More children and youth are coming out. Choir has continued and we held our Easter Concert. We are involved in outreach in a number of ways. We have good reason to continue to work and pray to sustain our ministries, our care for one another, and to continue our search for more staff.

A mother waits for her son excitedly on the last day of the term.

"At last you're home. Where's your report card?"

"I haven't got it."

"Why not?"

"I lent it to Lenny."

"And why does he need it?"

"He wants to scare his parents with it."

A 9-year-old walks in on her mother who is getting ready for work.

Daughter: "What are you doing?"

Mother: "Putting on my wrinkle cream."

Daughter: "Oh. I thought they were natural."
