

First Baptist Regina News

For the Weeks of April 2 & 9, 2023

Jesus' Suffering and Death for the Life of the World

Jesus opened up a way for anyone and everyone to come home. He has given us a church family that welcomes one another on this journey. There are so many people who are praying, sharing, and caring for each other in this place. Above all, we point one another to Jesus. His love is renewing us every day.

We don't always get it right. There are struggles, questions, and failures. These make the moments of being welcomed and of welcoming others all the richer.

A Few Words of Thanks...

- Thank you to Natasha Skea for taking the lead on finding and framing the art print of "The Return of the Prodigal." Thanks also to Timothy Long for his help, and Jim Ellemers and Derrick Bellows for hanging the picture.
- Thanks to Sue and Dell Bornowsky who scrubbed down all the pews over several days recently and made some repairs as well.
- Thank you to everyone helping out with the Saturday lunch program alongside people from churches from across the city and across denominations. Over a hundred people came out last week. Need is increasing across charities in our city. Thanks to the Italian Star Deli who have been providing all the sandwich meats every week with a generous discount.
- Thank you to all the singers and musicians ministering through the Easter concert, and to those who provided refreshments afterwards.

And there are many more folks helping in all kinds of ways and with all ages.

"The Return of the Prodigal" by Rembrandt

For 132 years, First Baptist has been faithful in downtown Regina to share what we receive from God: a warm, loving welcome, new life, and goodness in abundance.

I am grateful to walk through the week of darkness with you. And I look forward, God willing, to celebrating Jesus' resurrection and entering into his joy with you once again.

With love,

Pastor Joel

“Glory to God Alone” – In Thanksgiving for Mark Anderson’s Years of Service

When: Sunday, May 7th, 11:00 am

What: A special Sunday morning service with guests, prayers, and communion, followed by a farewell meal and program in the lower hall.

We are all aware of Mark’s contribution to our worship services and concerts. Every Sunday for over three decades he has help direct our attention toward God. Many would also know and appreciate his humility, his great sense of humour and way with words, and his years of teaching Learning for Life. Mark has also frequently made himself available to support and advise the staff and board throughout his time. Outside our congregation, Mark has been the means of blessing many generations of young people and staff at Luther High School, including many of our own youth who attended there on scholarships thanks to Mark’s support.

Last fall, Mark and Roxanne announced their respective retirements here in Regina. This summer they will move to BC to a home in the mountains, closer to their sons and to the outdoor hikes and climbing that Mark enjoys. Please join us as we give thanks for all the ways God has ministered to us through Mark and to wish him and Roxanne well on this new time in their lives.

A love offering will be collected. For anyone wishing to contribute, gifts must be cash only. Please note that we are not able to issue receipts for income tax purposes. You may leave your gift in the offering basket at the church on Sunday morning, give it to a staff member, or bring it to the church before April 28th. Be sure to mark your envelope clearly with “Love offering for Mark and Roxanne Anderson.”

There once was a fine musician who needed her piano tuned. Wanting to hire someone who would do the best job possible, she asked around, and learned that there was a Mr. Opernockity who had an excellent reputation. So she immediately hired the man, and, in due time, he came and tuned the woman's piano. After he left, the musician sat down to play. However, there were two or three notes that didn't sound quite right to her, so she called Mr. Opernockity and asked him to come back. "Sorry, no can do," he said. "Opernockity only tunes once!"

"I was an Easter egg."

At a couples' counselling workshop, a presenter said that 85% of husbands didn't know their wife's favourite flower. One husband turned to his wife and said, "It's self-rising, right?"

If you're cooking supper and you discover that you're missing one key ingredient, you can usually substitute it with going out.
